PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Northann Corp. (the "Registrant") has determined that it is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2023 (the "Quarterly Report") with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission (the "SEC") by the prescribed due date. Under Rule 13a-13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, after a registrant's first registration statement becomes effective, the registrant must file its first quarterly report by the later of either 45 days after the effective date or the date the quarterly report would otherwise be due. The Registrant's registration statement on Form S-1 for its initial public offering was declared effective on September 29, 2023, such that the prescribed due date for the Quarterly Report was on November 14, 2023. However, due to a delay experienced by the Registrant in completing its financial statements and other disclosures in the Quarterly Report, the Registrant is still in the process of compiling required information to complete the Quarterly Report and its independent registered public accounting firm requires additional time to complete its review of the financial statements for the period ended September 30, 2023. The Registrant anticipates that it will file the Quarterly Report no later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed filing date, November 20, 2023.
